NOTES

The purpose of this book is to stimulate and encourage the interest in members of the Steelman family, to fill in and complete the ancestors and descendants of Mathias and Ruth Steelman, who lived in Kent County, Delaware, where most of their children were born about 1747 to 1770.

We have not been able to determine who the parents and grandparents of Mathias were, and we hope this book will encourage someone to accomplish this which with the work of Ross K. Cook and Dr. Adams will give a more complete unbroken line back to Captain Hans Mansson, the father of the Steelmans'.

The compiler of this book has spent several years in tracing the descendants of Mathias and Ruth Steelman, and in the process has supplied many people with their ancestory. These descendants are to be found in every state. The contents of this book contains about one sixth to one eighth of the male descendants of Mathias and Ruth Steelman; therefore, it is important that anyone who has information not contained herein send it in as outlined further on.

As our country grew, people moved westward looking for opportunities in the new undeveloped lands. Many young Steelmans' and some older ones left North Carolina about 1800 for other sections as land became available, and this continued for all of the 1800's.

The states receiving the earliest migration from North Carolina were Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Missouri, and Arkansas. Shortly thereafter came Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, and Oklahoma, and from then on they migrated to every state in the union.

We have included copies of early documents to establish the relationship of the people involved. We have also tried to be sure the information given is correct, however, with the large number of correspondents involved, we cannot be positive that it is. We will welcome any additions or corrections and ask if possible to support them with appropriate references.

It is our hope this book will bring forth enough additional information so we can put out a revised version at a later date, and we hope the users of this book will send in additions paying particular attention to incomplete families and new ones not shown. Please send this information to:

CAPTAIN HANS MANSSON
Ancestor of the Steelman Family

The Steelman family is a wide spread and prominent one in Southern New Jersey, and in the three centuries since its immigrant ancestor came to these shores, representatives have drifted to many parts of the United States. Who this immigrant ancestor was, has until recently remained a mystery, though the problem of his identity has interested numerous descendants over a period of years.

As will appear in the course of this paper, the four know progenitors of the different branches of the family were born in New Sweden. It seemed evident that the mystery of their parentage was due to some change of name, a practice common among descendants of early Swedish settlers. That this true is more than suggested by the enigmatic reference, in the Reverend Andrew Rudman's 1697 list of the members of the congregation of Old Swedes Church in Philadelphia, to the mother of the family as "Mrs. Ella, mother of Steelmans now." It would seem that the only possible interpretation of this expression is "Mrs. Ella, mother of those persons now called or known by the name of Steelman," implying that at an earlier date they had been known by some other name.

It is the purpose of this article to show who was the husband of Mrs. Ella--that is, who was the progenitor of the Steelman family and to present in approximately chronological order all the important references to him that have been found in New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey records. It may be regarded as the result of the work of both compilers who have been interested and have compared notes and views for nearly thirty years.

Each has made discoveries of new material or has come to realize the relevance and significance of documents known to both. Mr. Cook's interest, perhaps, was aroused by his reading an article on the family by Dr. Adams published in 1912. From there on, ideas and suggestions were freely and often exchanged, till Dr. Adams discovery of the reference to Peter, son of Hance Monseur in the Burlington County Court Records, later referred to, put the identity of the father of the four Steelman brothers beyond question.

The early records of the Charles Steelman family were set forth by Dr. Adams in the article, referred to above, entitled "Notes on the Steelman Family of Cinnaminson Township in Burlington County and Greenwich Township in Gloucester County, New Jersey."

(Penn. Mag. Hist. & Biog. vol. 38, pages 464-72) We know the family was Swedish, and the name first appears in the Delaware River Region in a record of Chester Township, Burlington County, New Jersey, dated May 26, 1692. As it is well established that there was no Swedish immigration immediately prior nor subsequent to this period, it is reasonable to suppose that this family had been here for sometime, but under what name they were recorded has never been determined.

The Reverend Andrew Rudman commenced his pastorate of Old Swedes Church, Philadelphia, in 1697, and his list of parishioners was probably started the same year. He evidently used church records for most of his material, but some of it must have been hearsay, and no doubt he never met all of the people listed. He notes the Steelmans as all residents of New Jersey in the two following references: "Senamensing, at the other side of the river. Mrs. Ella, mother of the Steelmans now. Her sons, Eric aged 16 years, Charles aged 18 years." "On the Sea Shore, Great Egg Harbor. James Steelman; his wife Susanna, sister of Elias Toy. Their children Andrew, 5½ years; Susannah, 3½ years. His mother-in-law, Christina, a servant girl. Peter Steelman; his wife Gertrud, two children. (Penn. Mag. Hist. & Biog. vol. 2, pages 224-25)

Mrs. Ella, mother of the Steelmans now, has always puzzled historians and genealogists, but we can now identify her. We find she died January 22, 1718, according to the records of Trinity (Racoon) Church of Swedesboro, New Jersey. They state she was eighty and up at her death, and that she had been born in Sweden. She evidently had moved from Cinnaminson to Gloucester County. At the time of her death, she resided with her grandson, Eric Steelman. Born, therefore, circa 1630-1635, she certainly was not the mother of Eric and Charles Steelman, Jr., nor was she the wife of Charles Sr.; instead, she was the mother of Charles Sr., John Hansson, Peter and James Steelman, and probably married circa 1654.

The reference to her as the "Widow Hance of Senamensing" shows that she had been the wife of Captain Hance, so often called Hance Monsier or Monseur in surveys and deeds of Burlington County. He is also called in the following deed disposing of the old homestead, dated May 25, 1730:

> "Charles Steelman of the County of New Castle upon the Delaware River, son and heir of Charles Steelman, late of Sinnaminson, Burlington County, New Jersey, deceased, by and with advice and consent of John Bird of New Castle and Margaret his wife, and of David Enuxson and Eleanor his wife of the same county, sisters of the aforesaid Charles Steelman, sells to Phillip Wallis, of Evesham in Burlington County, for $130, a small tract of land in Chester Township on the East side of Penisaukin Creek. The land was purchased of William Biddle by Hance Monsier, grandfather of said Charles Steelman, by deed of April, 1688, and sometime after, was bequeathed by Hans Monsier to Charles Steelman, father of the grantor, Party to this present, by the last will and testament of ye said Hance Monsier, as will by ye Present will, recourse being ect." Trenton Deeds D.D. 206

It is evident that Hance Monsier, or Captain Hance as he is sometimes called, died between 1690 and May 10, 1692, for on this latter date his widow is recorded in the Chester Township Town Meeting Book as rated for taxes; "Widow Hance 3/-." This book is not a public record, but in 1936 was in the possession of D. R. Lippincott, an officer of the Burlington Trust Company of Moorestown, New Jersey. Widow Hance also records her earmarks in Chester

Township as a half Gad, the upper side of the far ear and nothing on the other ear. (Woodward and Hegeman, History Burlington and Mercer Counties, New Jersey, 1883, page 250) By comparison with that, they are the same although worded somewhat differently.

The Reverend Jehu Curtis Clay, also a pastor of Old Swedes Church, Philadelphia (1831-1863), in his annals of the Swedes on the Delaware (1st edition, 1835, pages 139-148) gives a list of Swedish families resident in New Sweden, in the year 1693, with the number of individuals in each family and specifically noting those born in Sweden. In this list appears the following Steelmans, none of them born in Sweden:

Peter Steelman, 4 in the family
James Steelman, 4 in the family
Johan Steelman, 5 in the family

It has always been assumed and rightly so, that Charles, John, Peter, and James Steelman were brothers. After the death of old Captain Hance Mansson or Monseur in Cinnaminson, the family, with the exception of Charles, seems to have scattered.

The journal of Reverend Andreas Sandel, pastor of Old Swedes Church, Philadelphia, printed the volume 30, pages 295-296, of the Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography, contains some interesting references to members of the Steelman family:

"September 27, 1704," I went to preach at a place called Egg Harbor, as some Swedes lived there. In crossing the river, I met Elias Tay's wife and accompanied her home.

"September 28, 1704," In the morning Matz and Eric Keen came to Tay's to accompany me a part way on my journey, but when they learned that I desired to visit all the Swedes living there abouts, and did not know the way to Little Egg Harbor, a messenger was sent in the night to Mollicka, over the river where it is said some people there intended to visit in the same neighborhood, and requested them to stop for us. About noon they arrived, and our part consisted of Matz Keen, Eric Keen, Elias Tay, Carl Steelman, Olaf Mollicka, Lars Kock, and a Englishman, Abraham Finnie. Towards evening the horses of the party who joined us at Tay's became tired, but we still ventured further and at sunset reached Little Egg Harbor.

"September 29, 1704," I preached a short sermon for those living here, viz. Mollicka's mother, a widow, her daughter, two unmarried sons, a married son, and Mollicka. No more Swedes were known to live there; an English family was said to live nearby. We left after the service (Matz and Eric Keen, Elias Tay, and Carl Steelman) and went to Big Egg Harbor, where other Swedes are living, and Mollicka showed us the way.

We had to cross numerous inlets, there was not beaten track, there was plenty of brushwood, besides swarms of mosquitoes that molested us. As we approached the sea, we saw vast meadows. We reached our destination after dark. English people and Swedes live here on the fast land. I was the guest of Jonas (James) Steelman , Elias Tay's brother-in-law; the others were at Peter Steelman's.

"October 1, 1704," I preached at the house of Girsta Fisk, a Swede and thither gathered all the Swedes, and as there were some English also present, I made some remarks in their language.

After the service, I baptized 10 children, 5 Swedish and 5 English.

"October 2, 1704," In company of Elias Tay, Matz and Eric Keen, I went down to the beach, as they call it, a dainty and hard sandy shore, with turtles (Query Terrapin) in plenty. This region abounds in birds and fish, the latter can be caught in summer and winter alike--and oysters too, on which we dined. Today, I baptized 2 English infants.

"October 3, 1704," Early in the morning, we started for home, 60 miles distant. We reached Elias Tay's just as the day began to wane. The woods we passed through were 40 miles in length.

"October 4, 1704," Back again at Passayunk (South Philadelphia). "Pro felici itinere sit Deo laus."

William Penn's writings of the Swedes, say "They have fine children and almost every house full; rare to find one of them without three or four boys and as many girls; some six, seven, and eight sons. (Clarkson's Life of William Penn, vol. I, page 309)

It is fair to assume that Captain Hans Mansson had some daughters, but to whom married, we do not know. His will, apparently never probated in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, or Delaware, has not been located, although it was referred to in the deed of 1730, cited above. He would have hardly have bequeathed the homestead to daughters, and as it seems to have been left to Charles, it is assumed that the latter was the eldest son and that he remained there until his death.

The names of the four Steelman brothers appear in the early records of South Jersey. That of Charles is omitted from the list of both Reverend Rudman and Reverend Clay although why is not known, for he was living as late as 1698 at Cinnaminson. The earliest reference to him, and incidentally to the Steelman name is contained in the following extract taken from the proceedings of a town meeting held in Chester Township May 26, 1692: "Whereas several of the inhabitants have suffered several losses and damages through the Ill Con--of the constable being not ready at hand when goods or cattle was being stolen. Therefore, to prevent and frustrate such ill minded persons in their evil designs we the inhabitants of this Township of Chester do Mutually By All Consents that if any person or persons do suffer any damage in his goods or cattle by any such ill minded person shall forthwith if the constable be not ready at the instant present time take two or three of his neighbors with him to the dwelling house of such person that is suspected and demand the person to search and if suspected do denie and refuse to do the same they may take him upon suspicion before a Magistrate forthwith and there complain against him. We have hereunto set our hands."

Among the 16 signers the name of Charles Steelman is twelth on the list. French Geneaology 1909 vol. I, page 119-20.

Charles is again mentioned in the Chester Township Records in connection with a resolution passed at a Town Meeting held October 17, 1698: "By virtue of a town meeting this day held att ye dwelling house of Thomas Wallis According to Order thereupon Agreed the mageer part of ye free houlders of the Town Shipp of Chester Alias ponsokin in the county of Burlington to choose Justa Fish for a constable in the place of Ffrederick King drafted to serve out the said Ffrederick Kings twelve months, Imprimis secondid. To order five pounds lawful money of the province to any one that will discover Hoggs stolen then make sufficient Prooff to be payed by John Ruderow town clarch as soon as it evidently appears---Those---Articles concluded upon by us here under written." The name of Charles Stoolman appears just preceding that of John Ruderow, Town clerk. (Woodwar and Hegeman, History Burlington and Mercer Counties, New Jersey, 1883, page 252).

On June 5th, 1705, Charles appeared before the Court Of Quarter Sessions of Burlington County as a witness against Mouns Cox concerning the killing of a horse; finally, we know that he was dead before March 22nd, 1709, as at a session of the same court "Mouns Cox" is discharged paying his fees and Satisfieing the Widow of Charles Steelman deceased. (Burlington Court Book Edited by Reed and Miller, 1944 pages 298-337).

Reference is made to John Steelman, who is thought to be the second son of Captin Hans Mansson, in the following entry of the Burlington County Court Records of August 30, 1680: "John Hance, Both Eares snipt." (Stilwell's Miscellany, Vol. 2, page 3) As this is the same ear mark that Capt. Hans Mansson used for one ear instead of both, we can assume that this John Hansson refers to John Steelman, later known as Captin John Hansson Steelman. He probably lived at home at this time but had his own herds while Charles, as heir apparent, is thought not to have registered ear marks. On August 24th, 1682, he and Frederick have bought of Anna Salter two hundred acres of land along the Delaware River, northeast of Small Creek, and adjoining property of Hance Monseur. (New Jersey Archives Ser. 2 Vol. 21, page 352).

Captin John Hansson Steelman appears to have settled in Delaware but his activities covered a wider field as he became a well known Indian trader in Pennsylvania. In 1699, and again in 1714, he is recorded in the register of Old Swedes Church in Wilmington, Delaware, as both Captain Hance Steelman and Mons. John Hansson Steelman. Dr. Albert Cook Meyers, formerly a member of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, states that he was born at or near Gray's Ferry (now in the southern part of West Philadelphia) in 1655, and that he was the actual founder of Harrisburg, State Capitol of Pennsylvania.

Peter Steelman appears in the Rev. Mr. Rudman's list as living at Absecon, New Jersey, and he was no doubt there by 1695-96, shortly after the trail referred to below. Later he moved to Penns Beck, near his kinsfolk, through most of his children remained at Great Egg Harbor.

In the Court of Common Pleas held in Burlington, February 20, 1695-96, "Samuel Nicholls, Plaintiff, Peter Monseur, Defendant, Action Trespasse, Jury called and Attested, Declaration Read. Daniel Leeds, Attested, Deposeth that the Meadow upon the front of the upland, and now in question, belongs to Capt. Hance. Jury find for the defendant, and Judgement awarded thereupon." Burlington Court Book 1944, page 185.

Daniel Leeds was the Surveyor General of New Jersey and a former member of the assembly. This record first noted by Dr. Adams shows that Peter Monseur was acquitted because the land in question belonged to Capt. Hance and not to Samuel Nicholls. In other words, the land was owned by his father and Peter Monseur is the Peter afterwards known as Peter Steelman. So far as is known this is the only case in which any son of Capt. Hance was called Monseur. This constitutes that actual proof that Capt. Hance and Hance Monseur were one and the same and, with many other evidences proves that Capt. Hans Mansson was the ancestor of the Steelman family.

James (Jonas) Steelman, the fourth son of Capt. Hance, was the first Swede known to have settled on the Atlantic Coast of New Jersey and he founded the Swedish Settlement of Egg Harbor. He had dwelt on the Delaware River, probably at Tacony (now a part of North Philadelphia) until 1693, when he crossed into New Jersey and made his way to the ocean front. In 1693, he was elected Overseer of Highways in which office he laid out the road from Egg Harbor to Gloucester; he also owned land at New Absecon Beach, the site of Atlantic City. An instance of how the New Jersey Swedes spread of the state is seen in the fact that James Steelman's first wife was Susannah Tay, sister of Elias Tay, who lived at Pensauken Creek on the Delaware. (Swedes and Finns in New Jersey, W.P.A. 1938, page 68-69.)

Having touched briefly on the careers of the four Steelman brothers, we will now turn our attention to Capt. Hans Mansson, himself, who is the subject of the present article. Through numerous extant records we arrive at a clear picture of his migrations but the reason of the change of name of his descendants to Steelman remains as much a mystery as ever.

According to one writer, the Swedish government, on April 13, 1641, wrote to Governor Carl Siggeson of the Province of Skaraborg instructing him to allow a trooper, Hans Mansson, to choose being hanged or to go to New Sweden with his wife and children. The subject was free to return home after six years and his sentence was to be kept secret from the public until executed. (The charge was he destroyed some fruit trees at the Royal Estate of Warnham). (Louhi's Delaware Finns, page 39). This book, however, is entirely guiltless of documentation or of references. It is therefore, impossible to check its statement unless they are corroborated in more authoritative works. This quotation is given Quantum valeat.

We are on much firmer ground in citing the reference to him Dr. Amandus Johnson's Swedish Settlements on the Delaware, a scholarly work in two volumes. There he is recorded as being from Skara and that he was sent from Gothenberg to New Sweden as a farm laborer in 1641; later he was a freeman and lived at Kingsessing (West Philadelphia), volume 2, page 712-20.

In 1643-44 the name Hans Mansson appears in a list of agricultural laborers at Upland (Chester, Pennsylvania); also together with others on July 27, 1653, he signed a protest that was presented to Governor Printz, volume 2, page 705, volume 1, page 462-63.

Immediately prior to the conflict between the Swedes and the Dutch on the Delaware, "Hans Mansson and Jacob Sprint, who were selected to go to New Amsterdam, returned five days later from Staten Island, bringing a complete and sure intelligence that the Director General of New Netherland intended to come to New Sweden with four large ships and several small ships and 700 men, being ready to sail August 18, 1655."

On the thirty first of the same month, Hans Mansson with Peter Rambo, Sven Gunnarsson and some others accompanied Henrick Elswick (Commissary of New Swedes to Christina (Wilmington) to help in the defense against the Dutch attack. (Volume 2, page 596-602.)

On May 14, 1669, he is reported among a group paying quit rents in Delaware (N.Y. Col. Doc. Vol. 12 page 491) which grant is confirmed in the following record: "whereas there is a certain piece or parcel of land in Delaware being bounded to ye north east with ye Scar Kill (Schuylkill) and to ye south with Andries Inckhorns Kill, and to ye north with a great pine tree on ye other side of Nangency Kill, over ye creek running into ye woods west and containing by estimation one hundred acres, be ye more or less; also, another piece or parcel of land being bounded with ye fence of John Eustace (Justice) on ye north, and with ye fence of Jonas Nealson to ye south, containing by estimation ten acres be ye same more or less; and likewise another small piece or parcel of land being bounded with Peter Andries fence to ye north, and with a little creek running into ye land of John Bowles to ye south, and containing by estimation ten acres be ye same more or less, which said several pieces or parcels of land are now in ye tenure or occupation of Hans Mansson. Now for a conformation unto him ye said Hans Mansson and the quit rent I bushel and halfe." (Philadelphia Exemplification Records, volume 8, page 435.)

As one of six witnesses to a document, testifying to Peter Rambo's rights to a certain piece of land and dated Kinsessing June 4, 1673, he signed himself Hans Monsen. (Upland Court Records, page 172.) Also, he appears on an undated census list taken by John Briggs for Sir Edmund Andros, Governor General of New York, of responsible housekeepers and their families residing in Passayunk. (N.Y. Col. Doc., volume 12, page 648.) From contemporary records, we can place this report as having been made circa 1674-1675. In September 1675, he was living on a tract of land in Oronomick (Delaware County, Pennsylvania) situated on the west side of the Schuylkill River containing 1100 acres, and on which land the court of Upland directed that a mill be built. (George Smith History of Delaware County, Pennsylvania, 1862, page 523.)

The following record explains why Hans Mansson bore the title of Captain, September 11, 1677, Upland Court, Capt. Hans Inrgrx is ordered to warn his men belonging to his company, and with them fit up and finish the house of defense at Upland, fit for the court to sit in, by the time next court. (Watson's Annals of Philadelphia, volume 2, page 239.)

This apparently unusual surname of Inrgrx was examined under an infrared ray camera by Drs. Amandus Johnson and Albert Cook Myers and their investigation showed the recorder had originally written Moens, one of the names by which Capt. Hans was known. Subsequently it had been stuck out and rewritten Jurgens, and the imposition of this later name upon the earlier resulted in the incomprehensible entry of Inrgrx. Watson further remarks that the captain had enrolled citizens for general defense and that the "house of defense" referred to in the court record, was a block house which might answer for a courtroom. Before this the house of Neiles Laersen had been used for that purpose.

On November 12, 1678, the court in Upland (page 114-15) records, It being taken in consideration that it was necessary that a mill be built in Schuykill, and there being no fitter place than the fall called Capt. Hans Moens fall, the court are of opinion that Capt. Hans Moen ought to build a mill there (as he says he will) or else suffer an other to build for the common good of ye parts...

Upon request made in behalfe of Jan Schoeten (son of Capt. Sven Scute), the court does grant him Liberty to take up a small quanity of marsh lying at ye place called Hans Moensens Great Mill Falls at ye end thereof, that is to say, so much as is fit to mowe 4 stacks of hay. . .The said mill fall being a run that comes ye Schuylkill. This great mill fall of Capt. Hans Mansson was the present Mill Creek which empties into the Schuylkill River immediately south of Woodlands Cemetery in West Philadelphia. In a resurvey made for the Captain, his tract is called Aronomink and the creek Great Quarn Fall quarn being Swedish for mill.

However it appears that Capt. Hans, although still owning the property of Aronmink, had the year before moved to another location a number of miles away for on September 11, 1677, he had petitioned the Upland Court for a grant of three hundred acres of land "on ye side of Poequessink Creek." This is the modern Pennypack Creek which empties into the Delaware River near what is now Tacony. Also in November 1677, the court records that he and several others were "tydables at Taonkanink" (Tacony). (Upland Court Records, pages 64-77.)

From the foregoing we see that Capt. Hans Mansson was first an inhabitant of Kingsessing, a district now in the southern part of West Philadelphia; then at Aronomink, now a part of Delaware County, Pennsylvania, side of the Delaware River in what is now the Tacony-Holmesburg section of North Philadelphia; and finally across the river in Cinnaminson in Burlington County near Palmyra, New Jersey.

At the session of the Burlington Court held September 6, 1680, is the record; "Captain permit being viewed this court bears date in February 1674. The court same day demanded of Jonas Keen to show his title toye land he holds; whos answer was he holds it under Peter Peterson, which (Peterson) had it of Capt. Hance and after sold his right therein to ye said Jonas." (Stillwells Miscellany, volume 2, page 4.) Search in Albany, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Dover, fails to disclose any certificate recorded, however, it may be that the missing confirmation is an obscure reference, dated May 14, 1679, from the records of the Court at Whorekill (Lewes, Delaware): acreage of Capt. Hans Mansson not given. "Being out of this point and unacquainted with it."

This was during the period when the Dutch and English had exchanged possession of land and the courts, and may be responsible for the difficulty in identifying the captain's grant.

On April 29, 1681, he deeded to Peter Yocum a tract of land on the west side of Schuylkill "called 100 acres but found to contain 1100 acres which were granted Hans Moensson by patent, dated March 10, 1670, by Governor Francis Lovelace. . ." (Philadelphia Exemplification Records, volume 1, page 287.) This refers to the Aronomink tract and was sold to the brother-in-law of Captain's son, John Hansson, who is called borhter in Yocum's will, dated February 4, 1700. (Pennsylvania Archieves ser. 2, volume 19, pages 369-70.)

At a session of the court of commoners held in Philadelphia September 6, 1703, reference was made to 100 acres of land in Kingsessing which was purchased by Richard Bonsal in 1696 from Enock Enockson, heir to his father, Barr't Enockson, who purchased the same of Hans Mounson, as by certificate under Thomas Holmes hand dated 29th 5 mon. 83 mentioning the deed to have been delivered to him but was mislaid. . .(Pennsylvania Archieves ser. 2, volume 19, pages 389-90.)

This land is shown on a 1687 map of Kingsessing by Holme who was surveyor to William Penn.

Captain Hans Mansson, Jonas Keen, and Frederick King among others were listed under date August 10, 1684, as contributors to the salary of the Rev. Jacob Fabritius, Swedish minister at Old Swedes Church in Philadelphia. (Penn. Mag. Hist. and Biog., volume 2, page 342.) This is proof of the Senamensing residents participation in the affairs of this church across the river.

In the Book of Surveys of the West Jersey Records, a return dated August 6, 1687, refers to 5 acres of meadow land on Pensaukin Creek and a small run on the lower side of Capt. Hance's land. (New Jersey Archieves ser. 1, volume 21, page 364.) This undoubtly is the land on which Peter Monseur was accused of trespassing. It is again mentioned in the records almost three years later, on April 14, 1690, (Ibid, page 365.) This is the last reference to Capt. Hance that has been found in the public records and as stated above, he died between this date and May 1692, when his widow is recorded as a taxpayer in Chester Township, New Jersey.

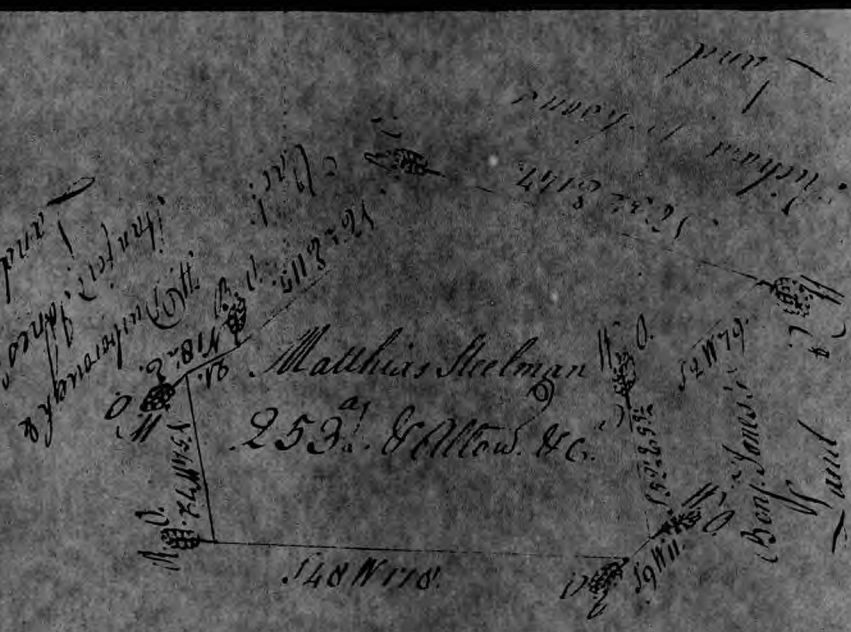
The parents of our Mathias Steelman are not known; however, this writer believes Captain John Hances Steelman, son of Hans Mansson, to be the most logical ancestor of our Mathias and was probably his grandfather.

Captain John Hance Steelman was the only one of the brothers to settle in Delaware, and his activities were either in Delaware or close by such as the Elk River area of Pennsylvania, he was active in Old Swedes Church we know during the period 1698 to 1723 and perhaps longer which is the church Reverend Andrew Rudman referred to in his record of 1697 as being the church where Mrs. Ella belonged earlier, she died January 22, 1718 Trinity (Racoon) Church Swedesboro, New Jersey.

The Reverend Jehu Curtis Clay on page 7 of this book shows Captain John Hance having five children, we know of, John and Mary, and when we find out about them and the other three, I believe we will have Mathias Steelman's parents.



A Draught of a Tract of Land situate in Murderkill Forrest in Kent County, containing two Hundred & Fifty three Acres and an Half of an Acre, and the Allowance of six Acres p Cent for Roads. Survey'd the 30th Day of November 1748 for Mathias Stelman, in Pursuance of a Warrant bearing Date the 26. Day of November 1747.

Geo Stevenson D.S.

Counties on Delaware BY THE PROPRIETARIES

Whereas Mathias Steelman of the County of Kent hath requested of us that we would be pleased to grant him a survey on one hundred acres of land between Benjamin's portion and Hour Glass Marsh in the forest of said county for which he agrees to pay to our use from the day hereof the yearly quitrent of one penny sterling, for every acre of the same, and one whole years rent on every Allienation: These are therefore to authorize and require you to survey or cause to be surveyed unto the said Mathias Steelman at the place aforesaid contigous to surveys already made, the said quanity of 100 acres, if not already surveyed or appropriated, and make return thereof into the secretaries office, in order for confirmation; for which this shall be sufficient warrant.

Given unto my and with the seal of the land office, by virtue of certain powers from the said Proprietaries, at Philadelphia, this the twenty sixth day of November 1747.

IN TESTIMONY whereof I have hereunto affixed the public seal of Kent County.

Anyone interested in joining the D.A.R. who are descendants of anyone in this book are eligible through Mathias Steelman whose record is now on file with the D.A.R. There have been several who have joined on this line. Also, anyone who is a descendant of Mathias's sons, William and John, can use their records also as both were Revolutionary War soldiers. William received his pension on certificate #27 827 Act of June 7, 1832, at the rate of $53.33 per annum.

John's pay record is on file in the North Carolina State Archives. Also, Mrs. Sinclair Williams of 128 Hill Crest Avenue, S.E., Concord, N.C. 28025, joined on John's record; however, the information she gave in her application is wrong in its entirety as there is no known record of any dates, names, or anything else except John Steelman was a Revolutionary War solider, and he is the son of Mathias Steelman. Mrs. Sinclair William's line is Mathias, and his son Charles which was confirmed to me in her letter of September 6, 1966, when I could not substantiate the information given. Her letter reads in part, "quote, More than fifty years ago I worked out my Steelman line, one did not have to prove dates ect. in those days to be accepted by the D.A.R., Lo, I found too late that John and Charles were brothers and that Charles was my ancestor and not John. You are the only one who has wanted to use the line but it is not correct, so I can not send it." My interest in this was that John is my ancestor and I needed all the information I could find at that time.

We think Mathias may have been married more than once. In his will he left his property to his wife Ruth during her natural life or did not remarry, and then to his youngest son James, and if James died without issue to be sold and divided between all his living children; this could indicate that James was the only son he had by Ruth, and the other children could have been by a previous wife. We do not have anything to support this.

Dr. Adams, in The Atlantic County Historical Society Yearbook 1956-57, shows Mathias as the son of George Steelman and Phebe Adams who married December 12, 1737. This could not be correct because Mathias had a son William born in Kent County, Delaware, in 1750, and Mathias was buying land in Kent County in 1747. This would make Mathias buying property at less than 10 years of age and a father at less than 13 years of age.

Dr. Adams also shows Mathias and George Steelman who died in Surry County, North Carolina in 1800 as brothers. We think this is also an error as all of Mathias's children were grown and married, in fact, he had grandchildren, and some of these could have been grown at that time, whereas all of George's children were small, and instead of being brothers they were father and son.

Tuesday, August 13, 1805,Charles Steelman , Ruth Steelman, and Elizabeth Steelman, orphans of George Steelman, deceased came into court and chose Elizabeth Steelman their mother as their guardian, and the court appointed the said Elizabeth Steelman guardian to James Steelman, Rachel Steelman, Rebecca Steelman, orphans of the same who accepted as such.

CHARLES STEELMAN'S LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
SURRY COUNTY

Charles Steelman Last Will and Testament. I Charles Steelman of the County of Surry and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say.

First, that my executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends and pay all my funeral expenses, together with my just debts howsoever and to whomsoever owing out of the money that may come first in to his hands as a part of my estate.

Also I give and to my wife Elizabeth Steelman fifty acres of land to have and to hold to her the said Elizabeth Steelman for and during the time of her natural life.

Also I give and devise to Abraham Douglas son of John Douglas the same tract of land whereon I now live except the life estate of my wife devised in a former item of this will to have and to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple forever.

I give and bequeath to my four sons George, Joshua, Charles, and James Steelman one dollar each.

Also I give and bequeath to my five daughters, to my eldest Catherine one dollar, to Ruth Rutledge one dollar, to Rachel Wiles one dollar, to Jane Reavis one dollar, to Polly Atwood one dollar.

Also my will and desire is that all the residue of my estate if any after taking out the devises and legacies above mentioned should be sold and debts owing to me are collected and if there should be anything over and boave payment of debts, expenses and legacies that such surplus should be paid over to my wife and to Abraham Douglas forever and I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusted friend George Waddle my Lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby making and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I the said Charles Steelman do hereunto set my hand and seal the 3rd day of June A.D., 1843.

From the aforementioned, it is apparent that these are the same people and his full name was Charles John Steelman, and he preferred John but had to use Charles because his son John lived close by.

We have another report that later he moved close to Nashville, Tenn. where he had a 320-acre farm. Also that he was a millwright by trade.

Westley, William, George, and Rosa never married the first three in letter from Mrs. Laura J. Setzer 242 Carrige St. Ojal, Cal. 93023 dated 9-9-1966 to Elbert A. Stellmon of Lewiston, Idaho.

Jane lived with Frank Monday in 1850 and married William Chamberlin on 3-26-1851, Surry County, N.C.; Margaret married Warren Young. Nancy married Charles Monday; she died 12-29-1955. Alexander married Doanie Weiser; Charles went to Kentucky.

#1 An indenture signed by John Steelman and James Steelman binding John's son Mathias to said James was presented and approved of by the court and ordered recorded 6/paid.

#2 An indenture signed by John Steelman and Abraham Cunningham binding John's son John Alexander to said Cunningham was presented and approved by the court and ordered recorded 6/paid.

From the above we know John Steelman had two sons and two daughters unaccounted for. Can find no trace of John after 2-9-1802, on 2-13-1801 Francis Locke sued John for L26 - 2 shilling, 6 pence and won by default, later court records indicate the Sheriff could not locate John.
